SENATOR WEHRBEIN: May I explain?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes. Yes.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: The proposal's going to be to combine the 800 and the 128, and that will come out to 960. Now that's voodoo math, but it's going to be 960 with a segregation unit included. That will be our proposal for the same amount of money, so you're clear on that. The operational costs will be very similar and those are the updated operational costs that I will be speaking to. I just...I just wanted you to understand that. You can discuss either one that you want to, but our proposal will be a more current one and you...if we want to do it for the record and that's going to be the one we're going to vote on and recommend, at least if I have my wish, then I wanted you to know that those numbers could be what we could discuss.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Will that be in an amendment...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: That is...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...that you're offering?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...that is an amendment that is already filed to...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, okay, so I'll have a chance to see it then before we have to...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. And somebody just told me we were going to go through the noonhour, but the point I wanted to make clear is that I don't intend to try to hold up this bill, you know, 388. I'll just vote no. But I did want to kind of alert you to some of the areas of interest that I have because nobody can carry all these figures in his or her head.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: And I will work diligently the entire weekend getting ready.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. (Laugh) Okay. Okay, Cinderella,
